Loan Information.

- If loans were consolidated, you must provide documentation from the lender showing that the original loans were qualifying loans.
- If you consolidated your loans with a spouse's loans, you must segregate your qualifying loans and provide supporting documentation for your loans. The burden of explaining/clarifying your loan information so that it is easily understood rests on you.
- 17. Complete the block below for each of your existing, qualifying loans. List them in the order you wish the incentive payments to be credited. See the ASLRP policy for information on which loans qualify. If you have more than two outstanding loans, use the loan information continuation page to continue. Note that one block must be completed for each loan, even if all loans are with the same lender. Provide a letter or statement (dated within 45 days prior to the date this request is submitted) from each lender or loan servicing organization for each loan indicating that the loan is current and in good standing, with your payment history, and reflecting the current balance. A monthly payment statement or cancelled check will not suffice.

Please read the certification block carefully before signing and dating. Review the ASLRP policy if you do not understand the terms of this certification.
18. I certify that all the information I provided (including materials in Part II, if applicable) is true and correct. I further certify that I am not in default on any qualifying Federal student loan, whether or not listed here. I have read and understand the Attorney Student Loan Repayment Program policy. I am aware of the eligibility requirements, the "matching funds" provisions, the possible impact of moving to a new position within the Department after selection, and the requirement to continue making personal loan repayments. I understand that the Department does not guarantee future incentive payments beyond FY 2004. I certify that there are no performance or discipline issues that render me ineligible for this program. I understand that I may be subject to administrative and/or disciplinary action, including but not limited to termination of the loan repayment incentive, if I provide false information.

General

This information is provided pursuant to the Privacy Act of 1974 (P.L. 93-597).

Authority for Collection of Information

5 U.S.C § 5379

Purpose and Uses

The main purpose for collecting the information requested on this form is to establish the terms under which an individual receives a student loan repayment benefit under the Attorney Student Loan Repayment Program. The information collected will be used as a basis for payroll actions and to identify and validate qualifying Federal student loans. Accordingly, disclosure of identifiable information, including your Social Security Number (SSN), may be made to the Internal Revenue Service for tax withholding purposes, the Department of Treasury for payroll action, and to the Department of Labor for worker compensation claims, and to lending or educational institutions to identify and validate qualifying Federal student loans. This information may also be used by the Department of Justice for other lawful purposes including law enforcement and in the event of litigation. In addition, these records, or information therein, may also be used within the Department of Justice for study purposes, such as projection of staffing needs, and/or creation of non-identifiable statistical data for reports to other Federal agencies and Congress.

Information Regarding Disclosure of Your Social Security Account Number

Disclosure of the SSN is mandatory since it is the identifier used by the Internal Revenue Service and for the withholding of taxes from your salary. The use of the SSN is necessary because of the large number of present and former employees and applicants who have identical names and birth dates, and whose identities can be distinguished only by the SSN. It is used primarily to identify an employee's personnel, leave, and pay records and to relate on to the other. In this regard, it is also used by the Department of Justice to locate records in order to respond to lawful requests for information from former employers, educational institutions, and financial or other organizations. It also may be used by the Department of Justice to identify and validate qualifying Federal student loans. The information gathered through the use of the number will be used only as necessary in personnel administration processes carried out in accordance with established regulations and published notices of systems of records. The SSN also will be used for the selection of persons to be included in statistical studies of personnel management matters.

Effect of Non-disclosure

Your submission of this Request for Consideration is voluntary; however, if the Request is submitted, omission of significant information requested would preclude continued processing to determine whether receive an incentive benefit.
